AN ACT

To amend section 7 of "An Act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and three, and for other purposes", approved July 1, 1902, as amended, so as to provide for the bonding of persons licensed to engage in a business, trade, profession, or calling involving the collection of money for others.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That paragraph numbered 46 of section 7 of the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and three, and for other purposes", approved July 1, 1902, as amended (sec. 47-2345, D.C. Code, 1951 edition), is amended by adding thereto the following subparagraph:

"(c) The Commissioners may in their discretion require that any class or subclass of licensees licensed under the authority of this section to engage in a business, trade, profession or calling involving an express or implied agreement to collect money for others shall give bond to safeguard against financial loss those persons with whom such class or subclass of licensees may so agree.

47 Stat. 563.

Bond require-

Limitation of amount

"The bond which may be required by the Commissioners under the authority of this subparagraph shall be a corporate surety bond in an amount to be fixed by the Commissioners, but not to exceed $15,000, conditioned upon the observance by the licensee and any agent or employee of said licensee of all laws and regulations in force in the District of Columbia applicable to the licensee's conduct of the business, trade, profession, or calling licensed under the authority of this section, for the benefit of any person who may suffer damages resulting from the violation of any such law or regulation by or on the part of such licensee, his agent or employee.

Violations. Right of action.

"Any person aggrieved by the violation of any law or regulation applicable to a licensee's conduct of a business, trade, profession, or calling involving the collection of money for others shall have, in addition to his right of action against such licensee, a right to bring suit against the surety on the bond authorized by this subparagraph (c), either alone or jointly with the principal thereon, and to recover in an amount not exceeding the penalty of the bond any damages sustained by reason of any act, transaction, or conduct of the licensee and any agent or employee of said licensee which is in violation of law or regulation in force in the District of Columbia relating to the business, trade, profession, or calling licensed under this section; and the provisions of the second, third (except the last sentence thereof), and fifth subparagraphs of paragraph (b) of the first section of the Act entitled 'An Act to grant additional powers to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and for other purposes', approved December 20, 1944 (58 Stat. 820; sec. 1-244(b), D.C. Code, 1951 edition), shall be applicable to such bond as if it were the bond authorized by the first subparagraph of such paragraph (b) of the first section of said Act approved December 20, 1944: Provided, That nothing in this subparagraph (c) shall be construed to impose upon the surety on any such bond a greater liability than the total amount thereof or the amount remaining unextinguished after any prior recovery or recoveries.

Professions or businesses. Exemption.

"This subparagraph (c) shall not be applicable to persons when engaged in the regular course of any of the following professions or

"(1) Attorneys at law.

"(2) Persons regularly employed on a regular wage or salary, in the capacity of creditmen or in a similar capacity, except as an independent contractor.

"(3) Banks and financing and lending institutions.

"(4) Common carriers.

"(5) Title insurers and abstract companies while doing an escrow business.

"(6) Licensed real estate brokers.

"(7) Employees of any class or subclass of licensees required to give bond under this subparagraph."
